SOCIETY

Truth In Parenthesis Anonymous.

I love—Oh, more than words can tell;
(Your ninety thousand golden shiners);
You draw me by a golden spell;
(As California draws the miners);
You are so rich in beauty's dower,
(And rich in several ways beside it),
Had I your hand within my power
(Across a banker's draft to guide it),
No cares my future life could dim,
(My tailor, too—what joy to him).

Oh, say, my young, my fawn-like girl,
(She's old enough to be my mother);
Let "yes" leap those gates of pearl;
(My laughter it is hard to smother);
Let lips that Love has formed for joy,
(For joy if they her purse resign me);
Long hesitate e'er they destroy
(And to a debtor's jail consign me).
The heart that beats but to adore,
(Yourself the less, your fortune more.)

PROMINENT EL PASOAN MARRIES.

After Delaying Quite a Number of Years a Prominent El Paso Man Becomes a Benedict.

It came quite as a surprise when recently a well known El Pasoan returned to El Paso with a bride. There was apparently no reason why he should not have married previously and when he was asked for a reason it was simple enough. He said "I had been almost bald headed, and nobody loves a bald headed man." When asked as to what has brought about a change his concise answer was "A bottle of White's Hair Tonic." "White's Hair Tonic" is recognized as one of the best on the market. It stops falling hair, is a splendid dandruff eradicator and gives new life to the hair. For sale by Scott White & Co., 204 Mills St. (Name of above bridegroom given upon application of White's Hair Tonic).
